

COVID Protocol for Annual General Meeting of Shareholders

In order to attend the annual general meeting of shareholders in person, the shareholder or other participant must complete a certification that the individual has been immunized for COVID and is not currently experiencing any symptoms of COVID. The certification will be provided upon entry into the building. If the shareholder or other participant has not been vaccinated or does not complete the certification, other accommodations will be considered.