

Thomas Sartain

Senior Portfolio Manager

Thomas Sartain

Tom Sartain is a Senior Portfolio Manager for the Invesco Fixed Income Global Multi-Sector team based in London. His role encompasses idea generation and portfolio construction across interest rate, asset allocation and currency strategies for global portfolios. His areas of focus include relative value strategies, derivatives and inflation markets.

Mr. Sartain joined Invesco in 2018. Prior to joining the firm, he worked with Schroders Investment Management for 13 years. He served as a senior member of the multi-sector portfolio management team, overseeing Libor plus, global aggregate and sovereign portfolios, including inflation-linked portfolios. Along with being a senior investor, Mr. Sartain had managerial oversight of the analyst function within the team. Prior to 2005, he worked in fixed income at RBS Financial Markets.

Mr. Sartain earned a BA degree in management and business administration from University of Reading.