

Why CollegeBound 529

Summary of CollegeBound 529 features

CollegeBound 529 was designed to deliver a superior client experience for financial professionals and the families they serve while helping the next generation achieve their higher education aspirations.

Cost-conscious investment options

- Highly competitive costs due to the inclusion of active and passive investment portfolios

Innovative program design

Flexible funding options designed to accommodate every savings budget:

- $0 minimum investment.
- $520,000 per beneficiary limit.
- $18,000 per beneficiary, per year that can be gifted tax-free ($36,000 for married couples).

Multiple unit classes and no minimum contribution requirements provide you with the flexibility you need to help meet the objectives of individual and business clients.

- Class A units: Upfront sales charge with compensation paid upon initial investment.
- Class C units: Annual distribution fee and financial professional compensation at 1% for five years before conversion to Class A units.¹
- Class I units: Lowest cost option — available for registered investment advisors and other fee-based financial professionals.
- Rollovers² into CollegeBound 529, regardless of dollar amount, receive Class A Units at NAV. The broker commission and trail follow the same payout structure as A unit purchases >$500k. Not all broker/dealers participate in rollovers to Class A units at a breakpoint. Please check with your financial firm for further details.

Cumulative quantity discounts:

- An account owner qualifies for cumulative quantity discounts on the purchase of Class A Units in CollegeBound 529 when the account owner's new investment, combined with the current market value of units in other investments in CollegeBound 529 and shares of mutual funds advised by Invesco Advisers, Inc or its affiliates³, reaches a breakpoint discount level.
