

Jeff Deetsch

Stable Value Strategist

Jeff Deetsch

Jeff Deetsch is a Strategist on the Invesco Fixed Income Stable Value team. In this role, he manages stable value client relationships with responsibility for the development and application of investment strategy consistent with client investment objectives and guidelines. Additionally, he provides oversight and evaluation of external subadvisors utilized across the stable value fund lineup.

Mr. Deetsch joined Invesco in 2002 and has assumed increasing responsibilities within performance analysis, investment grade fixed income/stable value portfolio management and client service roles. He began his investment career in 1999 with Kentucky Home Trust Company, where he was responsible for account oversight and relationship management.

Mr. Deetsch earned a BA degree in psychology from Wittenberg University and an MBA from the University of Louisville.