⁵ On Dec. 1, 2016, Invesco International Total Return Fund was renamed Invesco World Bond Fund. The fund made several changes including updates to its investment strategy and changed from quarterly to monthly distributions. Please see the current prospectus for more information.

⁶ If necessary, Invesco variable insurance funds have the potential to pay current year income and/or capital gains in December. The dates and amounts for the distributions will be communicated at a later date.

Information to note

- All open-end Invesco funds, money market funds and portfolios and variable insurance funds - including funds not listed above - have the potential to pay additional distributions in the form of capital gains and/or income. The record dates, ex dates, payable dates and reinvestment dates for these additional distributions are yet to be determined. Invesco will communicate which funds have the potential to pay income or capital gains and the timing of those distributions at a later date.
- Net asset values (NAV) will drop on the distribution ex date to reflect the portfolio's NAV after distribution; this drop would be in addition to any effect the market's performance had on the securities within the portfolio.
- In December, a free copy of the 2017 Invesco Tax Guide will be available as a PDF at invesco.com/us. The guide should help Invesco shareholders with their 2017 tax return.
- Distribution information will be accessible in December on Invesco's website, invesco.com/us, by clicking Accounts & Services > Tax Center > 2017 Distribution Information.
