Dividend growers

An actively managed strategy that focuses on dividend-growing companies and seeks to deliver attractive total returns – combining appreciation, income and preservation – over a full market cycle.

1 Appreciation – A history of adding value:

The fund had a cumulative return of 120% in the current full market cycle versus 95% for the Russell 1000 Value Index.¹

2 Income – A focus on sustainable and growing dividends:

The fund's annualized dividend growth rate was 12.65% since manager inception versus 7.65% for the S&P 500 Index and 5.82% for the Russell 1000 Value Index.² Please note the dividend growth rate is not a yield or a measure of fund performance but is based on the annualized growth rate of the fund's actual dividend payments.

3 Preservation – A solid foundation for your equity portfolio:

The fund's Class A shares at NAV outperformed its benchmark, the Russell 1000 Value Index, by 9.98% in the last major bear market.³

59% of the fund's total return came from reinvested dividends.

Fund Class A share returns are at NAV since manager inception, Dec. 31, 2002, through June 30, 2019

Fund returns at NAV do not include sales charges, which would have reduced the performance. For more information on performance, please see performance disclosures on back.

1 Performance shown is for Class A shares at NAV from Oct. 10, 2007, through June 30, 2019.

2 The dividend growth rate reflected assumes an initial investment of $10,000 into the fund on Dec. 31, 2002, through Dec. 31, 2018 with no reinvestment of dividends over time. Please note that quarterly dividend payouts varied and decreased during some periods since the manager inception period.

3 Bear market cumulative performance is from Oct. 10, 2007, through March 9, 2009. During the bear market, the fund's return was -49.75% and the Russell 1000 Value Index return was -59.73%.

Performance quoted is past performance and cannot guarantee comparable future results; current performance may be lower or higher. Visit invesco.com for the most recent month-end performance. Performance figures reflect reinvested distributions and changes in net asset value (NAV). Investment return and principal value will vary so that you may have a gain or a loss when you sell shares. Had fees not been waived and/or expenses reimbursed in the past, returns would have been lower. Performance shown at NAV does not include the applicable front-end sales charge, which would have reduced the performance. Class Y shares have no sales charge; therefore, performance is at NAV. Class Y shares are available only to certain investors. See the prospectus for more information.
