Additional Information

Early Distribution: If you are taking an early distribution, the taxable amount of the distribution may be subject to federal income tax as ordinary income and may be subject to an additional 10% penalty tax. In the case of a SIMPLE IRA, a 25% penalty tax may be imposed if two years have not elapsed since the date of initial funding. For more information regarding exceptions to the penalty tax, see IRS Publication 590-B.

Disability Distribution: Disability is defined in the Internal Revenue Code Section 72(m)(7) as being unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of a medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or to be of long-continued and indefinite duration. By signing this Distribution Form and choosing Disability as the Type of Distribution in section 3C, you certify that you meet the requirements for a disability distribution.

Beneficiary IRA Distribution: A distribution from a Beneficiary IRA will be coded on IRS Form 1099-R as 4-Death. The distribution may be subject to federal income tax as ordinary income, but will not be subject to additional penalty if taken prior to age 59½. To request that IIS calculate the required minimum distribution, please use the IRA Beneficiary Transfer/Distribution Form.

Direct Rollover: If you are requesting a direct rollover, a signature guarantee or a letter of acceptance from the new custodian is required. Assets payable to you and deposited to the new custodian within 60 days are reported as a premature or normal distribution.
