Sign up to receive notice by email that shareholder and fund information is available online. By providing an email address you consent to receiving electronic documents and notices rather than receiving paper documents by US mail. Electronic documents and other communications may be delivered by email or an email message containing a link to an internet address or website where the document is posted and from which it can be read or printed. Documents delivered electronically include, but are not limited to, summary prospectuses, prospectus supplements, annual and semi-annual shareholder reports, proxy materials, account statements, transaction confirmations, privacy notices, and other notices and documentation in electronic format when available. By providing your email address, you also consent to receive any additional documents capable of electronic delivery in the future.

To receive email alerts, your computer must be capable of reading PDF files. If you have an application installed that enables you to view PDF documents, you may proceed with eDelivery. If you do not, download Adobe® Reader®. You should also refer to Adobe® Reader® for system requirements necessary to access these documents. If you are unable to download Adobe® Reader® or view PDF documents, do not sign up for eDelivery.

Important Information Regarding Electronic Delivery

You, or if you act on behalf of an entity, the Trustees/Authorized Signers confirm that the authorized persons have internet access, access to Adobe® Reader® and an active email account to receive information electronically.

While Invesco does not charge you for electronic delivery, your internet provider may charge you for internet access. Also, please be aware that your internet service provider may occasionally experience system failures in which case hyperlinks to documents may not function properly.

If any electronic message is returned to us, we will resume sending you documents by US mail and request that you send us an updated email address.

If you use spam-blocking software, please update your settings to receive email from us.

Once you consent to receipt of documents by electronic delivery, you will need to notify us in writing or modify your preferences in your online profile of any intent to revoke your consent to receive documents by electronic delivery.

This consent will remain in effect until revoked. The authorized persons may revoke this consent and/or request paper copies of documents delivered electronically at no additional charge. Please contact an Invesco Client Services representative at 800 959 4246, weekdays, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Central Time if you wish to revoke your consent or otherwise wish to receive a paper copy of any documents referenced in this consent.

Depending on when you request eDelivery of statements, you may receive your next statement via US mail. You will receive email notification for all subsequent statements. If other shareholders in your household do not sign up for eDelivery, you may continue to receive these materials via US mail. You may update your email address, change your eDelivery selections, or cancel this service at any time by visiting our website or calling Invesco.

Unclaimed Property Notice

Please note that your property may be transferred to the appropriate state's unclaimed property administrator if no activity occurs in the account within the time period specified by state law.

Additional Information *(continued)Account Types

UTMA/UGMA - If UTMA/UGMA is selected, a UTMA is established unless otherwise requested, or unless the account is established for Guam, or the U.S. Virgin Islands, as these states/territories have not adopted the UTMA. The assets in a UTMA/UGMA account are considered an irrevocable gift to the minor named in the account registration. Once the former minor on an Invesco UTMA/UGMA account reaches the designated age of trust termination, the custodian no longer has the authority to process financial transactions on the account, and the account should be re-registered to the former minor so that he/she will have full control of the assets.

Joint Accounts

Joint Tenants with Rights of Survivorship (JTWROS) - A form of account registration in which two or more individuals share an undivided interest in an account. In the event of one's tenant's death, the surviving tenant(s) automatically inherits the property without the necessity of court proceedings.

Tenants in Common (TIC) - Joint account in which each tenant owns a divisible interest, determined and recorded by the tenants. Upon the death of a tenant his portion goes to his estate, and the other tenants receive their interest in the account.

Tenants by Entirety - A joint account between husband and wife in which each tenant has full interest in the account. Upon the death of one spouse, the survivor takes title immediately.

Community Property - Equal ownership of all property accumulated by spouses during marriage. Anything owned prior to the marriage is considered separate property.
