

Paul Chuong

Managing Director, Private Debt

Paul Chuong

Paul Chuong is a Managing Director of Private Debt for Invesco's Global Private Credit platform. In this role, he is responsible for originating, structuring, and executing direct lending investment opportunities.

Mr. Chuong joined Invesco in 2021. Prior to joining the firm, he served as a vice president with Antares Capital, where he held a variety of screening, structuring, underwriting, and portfolio management roles focused on middle market, private debt investments. Prior to that, Mr. Chuong was with GE Capital where he was responsible for the structuring, underwriting and portfolio management of asset-based lending investments to middle market businesses. Mr. Chuong began his career through a GE Capital commercial leadership program in 2004.

Mr. Chuong earned a BA degree in economics from the University of Connecticut.