Gain or loss realized on shares may be treated as a taxable event. Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ► Amounts received by a shareholder in a distribution in complete liquidation of the Fund is treated as full payment in exchange for the stock. This sale or exchange treatment results in the offsetting of a shareholder's basis against the liquidation distribution proceeds, resulting in realized gain or loss. After this gain or loss recognition event, the shareholder will no longer own any shares or have any tax basis in the redeemed shares.
