

Robert Young, CFA®

Head of Institutional Convertible Securities
Senior Portfolio Manager

Robert Young, CFA®

Robert Young is Head of Institutional Convertible Securities and a Senior Portfolio Manager for Invesco Fixed Income. In this role, he manages and trades for institutional investment grade and non-investment grade convertible portfolios. He is also responsible for Invesco's structured convertible security effort that focuses on customized convertible solutions as stand-alone products or as a complement to other fixed income portfolios. Mr. Young also manages Canadian fixed income portfolios and inflation-linked products.

Mr. Young joined Invesco in 2001. Prior to joining the firm, he worked at OppenheimerFunds and T. Rowe Price Associates. Mr. Young entered the industry in 1993.

Mr. Young earned a BA degree in economics from Cornell University and an MBA in finance and international business from Fordham University. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA) charterholder.