Questions?

Contact your financial professional to see how CollegeBound 529 may fit into your overall financial plan.

Get started today

- It's quick and easy for both employer and employees.
- The employee fills out a CollegeBound 529 enrollment form.
- The employee works with his or her financial professional to complete a Payroll Direct Deposit form and selects the payroll deduction option.
- After this form is processed, the employee will receive a Payroll Direct Deposit Confirmation form, which will be signed and submitted to their employer's payroll department.
- The employer submits money via check, wire, or ACH (options detailed on the form) for each pay period.
- No government reporting.
- Employees will submit a Payroll Direct Deposit Authorization Form to you. Or, if your organization offers a self-service HR portal, the information on the form may be entered into that system.
- If you do not offer a self-service payroll portal, follow your existing procedures for payroll direct deposit by entering the:
 - Total dollar amount being contributed by the employee per pay period.
 - ABA routing number for Mellon Bank (CollegeBound 529's bank): 011001234.
 - Three-digit prefix, 548, followed by the first nine digits of the employee's CollegeBound 529 account number.
 - ACH transmittal code: "checking" account.

For more efficient processing, remember:

CollegeBound 529 processes payroll direct deposit instructions received by the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange. Contributions received after the close of regular trading will be invested at the closing unit value(s) of the next business day.

The closing unit value(s) will be used as long as we receive instructions and account information "in good order." A contribution is considered in good order when:

- An employee's CollegeBound 529 account is established and payroll direct deposit allocations and instructions are set up for the account.
- ACH instructions contain CollegeBound 529's correct Mellon Bank ABA routing number (011001234) and the employee's correct account number with the 548 prefix.

Please note: Should an error occur in your ACH instructions, any resulting loss will be your responsibility. CollegeBound 529 will not process future contributions until the instructions are corrected. Please call 877 615 4116 and we would be glad to assist you with this process or answer any other questions you may have.
