Andy Tidby Fund Manager

Andy Tidby

Andy Tidby is a Fund Manager for the Henley-based Asian and Emerging Market Equities team at Invesco. In this role, he is focused on the International Core Equity strategy specializing in Japanese and Australian companies. He also has wider responsibilities for Japanese and Australian small cap equities.

Mr. Tidby joined Invesco in 2008. Prior to his current role, he was a research analyst for Japanese equities. Before joining the firm, he was a senior investment writer at HSBC Global Asset Management, covering regulatory and marketing communications across the group's retail, intermediary, and institutional clients. He began his investment career in 1997 at HSBC Bank, where he was responsible for managing private client portfolios.

Mr. Tidby holds the Investment Management Certificate from the CFA Society of the UK.
