Invesco Closed-End Funds Declare Dividends

Contact: Closed-End Funds 800-341-2929

ATLANTA, May 1, 2026 – The Board of Trustees of each of the Invesco closed-end funds listed below declared dividends.

Invesco Senior Income Trust (NYSE: VVR) is updating its distribution rate to reflect current market conditions. This is the first adjustment since January 2025. The Trust's distribution objective remains aligned to providing consistent income to shareholders. Subject to market conditions, Invesco does not anticipate further adjustment to the distribution rate in the near future.

Form 1099-DIV for the calendar year will report distributions for federal income tax purposes. Each fund's annual report to shareholders will include information regarding the tax character of a fund's distributions for the fiscal year.

The final determination of the source and tax characteristics of all distributions in 2026 will be made after the end of the year.

In order to comply with the requirements of Section 19 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, each fund will provide its shareholders of record on the record date with a Section 19 Notice disclosing the sources of its dividend payment when a distribution includes anything other than net investment income. The Section 19 Notice is not provided for tax reporting purposes but for informational purposes only. If applicable, this Section 19 Notice information can be found on a fund's website at www.invesco.com.

The amount of dividends paid by each fund may vary from time to time. Past amounts of dividends are no guarantee of future dividend payment amounts.

Investing involves risk and it is possible to lose money on any investment in the funds.

For additional information, shareholders of the closed end fund may call Invesco at 800-341-2929.
