Vice President and Senior Product Director

Samuel Groban, CFA®

Samuel Groban is a Vice President and Senior Product Director for Invesco's Global Private Credit team. In this role, he oversees capabilities across broadly syndicated loans, collateralized loan obligations, direct lending, and distressed credit.

Mr. Groban joined Invesco when the firm combined with OppenheimerFunds in 2019, at which time he led the business development strategy efforts for the global debt platform. At OppenheimerFunds, he served in senior product management roles, responsible for developing and executing product and business development strategy for its senior loans and investment grade platforms. Prior to that, Mr. Groban served as a portfolio manager at Bear Stearns Asset Management, where he managed investment grade fixed income portfolios for US institutions and led his team's investor relations efforts. Previously, he was a junior portfolio manager at AllianceBernstein, where he assisted senior portfolio management in managing corporate bond portfolios for insurance accounts.

Mr. Groban earned a BA degree from the University of Michigan and an MBA from Fordham University's Gabelli School of Business. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA) charterholder.
