9 | Notice of ERISA 408(b)(2) Disclosure to Responsible Plan Fiduciary

Effective July 1, 2012, U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) rules under Section 408(b)(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) require "covered" plan service providers to disclose certain information to "responsible plan fiduciaries" of "covered" plans, including all "direct" and "indirect" compensation the service provider receives in connection with its provision of services to the plan. These are commonly referred to as the "408(b)(2) Rules" and "408(b)(2) disclosure." Under ERISA, if you are the responsible ERISA fiduciary to your plan, you are required to ensure that the fees and expenses the plan incurs are reasonable and appropriate, including the fees and compensation that your plan pays to its various service providers. To help meet your obligations as the responsible plan fiduciary, you should obtain, review and retain all of the 408(b)(2) disclosures applicable to your plan. To fulfill its obligation under the 408(b)(2) Rules, Invesco has made their 408(b)(2) disclosure report for your plan available at www.invesco.com/us/dolregs.

If your plan is not subject to ERISA, the 408(b)(2) Rules do not apply to you or your plan. However, we encourage you to retrieve the Invesco 408(b)(2) disclosure report and review it in your capacity as the plan sponsor.

- An ICM user name will permit an individual to access plan and participant information, submit contributions via the internet, and modify future investment elections. Therefore, ICM access should only be granted to financial professionals if they are functioning as the TPA as well as the financial professional for accounts within the plan.
- Once access is established, each user will receive a user ID and default password at the email address provided below in three to five business days after the form has been received by Invesco Investment Services, Inc. (IIS).
