A foundation for investors' portfolios

Invesco Diversified Dividend Fund seeks to serve as a foundation for investors' portfolios by employing a total return approach—emphasizing appreciation, income and preservation. The fund is managed to provide upside participation with better downside preservation over a full market cycle and seeks to deliver a low-volatility, broadly diversified stock portfolio across all market sectors.

Total return approach emphasizes appreciation, income and preservation

Competitive long-term performance with less risk versus peers

1 Sources: Ned Davis Research Inc., S&P Capital IQ, Compustat, Invesco. Beta is a measure of the volatility or systematic risk, of a security or a portfolio in comparison to the market as a whole. Beta for dividend growers and non-dividend payers is based on the S&P 500® Index for rolling ten-year periods using monthly data with the first ten-year time period beginning 3/31/1982 to 12/31/2019. Returns based on monthly equal-weighted geometric average of total returns of S&P 500® component stocks, with components categorized monthly. Annualized returns are shown from 3/31/1982-12/31/2019. Non-Dividend Paying Stocks represents non-dividend paying stocks of the S&P 500® Index and Dividend Growers represents all dividend-paying stocks of the S&P 500® Index that raised their existing dividend or initiated a new dividend recategorized monthly. An investment cannot be made directly into an index. 2 Performance shown is for Class A shares at NAV from 10/10/2007 through 12/31/2019. 3 The dividend growth rate reflected assumes an initial investment of $10,000 into the fund's class A shares on 12/31/2002 through 12/31/2019 with no reinvestment of dividends over time. Please note the dividend growth rate is not a yield or a measure of fund performance but is based on the annualized growth rate of the fund's actual dividend payments. Please also note that quarterly dividend payouts varied and decreased during some time periods since the manager inception period. 4 Bear market cumulative performance is from 10/10/2007, through 3/9/2009. During the bear market, the fund's return was -49.75% and the Russell 1000 Value Index return was -59.73%. 5 Manager inception date range is 12/31/2002-12/31/2019.

Performance quoted is past performance and cannot guarantee comparable future results; current performance may be lower or higher. Visit invesco.com/performance for the most recent month-end performance. Performance figures reflect reinvested distributions and changes in net asset value (NAV). Investment return and principal value will vary so that you may have a gain or a loss when you sell shares. Returns for periods shown are annualized. Performance shown at NAV does not include applicable front-end sales charge (max 5.50%), which would have reduced the performance. Performance for other share classes will differ due to differing sales charge structures and class expenses. Fund performance reflects any applicable fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements. Had the adviser not waived fees and/or reimbursed expenses currently or in the past, returns would have been lower. See current prospectus for more information.
