

Emerging Market Equities Investing in Exceptional Companies for the Long Term

Quick Facts

Emerging market economies have grown at a faster pace than their developed country counterparts and have been the leading engine of global growth. Despite short-term challenges, we believe this trend will continue and provide fertile ground for emerging market equity investors.

Morningstar Rating™

Class A shares were rated 4 stars overall among 701 Diversified Emerging Markets funds. Morningstar measures risk-adjusted returns. The overall rating is a weighted average based on the fund's 3-, 5-, and 10-year rating as of 9/30/19.<sup>1</sup> Silver rating is based on Morningstar Analyst Rating.<sup>TM2</sup>

Emerging markets over the last few years have been volatile and have underperformed their developed market counterparts. As such, investors are beginning to allocate away from emerging market equities until a sustainable recovery is seen. By doing so, investors may be missing out on maximizing their return potential.

Higher Quality Outperforms Over the Long Term<sup>4</sup>

While lower-quality names have historically had periods of strong performance, higher-quality companies have outperformed over the long term. We believe that owning high-quality, exceptional companies is the best way to access long-term growth in emerging market equities.

Identifying Exceptional Companies

What We Look For

- + Sustainable competitive advantages
- + High returns on invested capital
- + Strong and shareholder-friendly management teams

What We Avoid

- + Commoditized and highly cyclical industries
- + Highly levered companies
- + Companies in heavily regulated industries
- + State-owned enterprises

Investment returns and principal value will vary; you may have a gain or loss when you sell shares. Performance figures reflect reinvested distributions and changes in share price and the effect of the max. sales charge unless otherwise stated. Class A (with sales charge) returns reflect a 5.50% max. sales charge. Class R6 and Y shares are not subject to sales charge. Fund performance reflects fee waivers, absent which, performance data quoted would have been lower. Total annual fund operating expenses after any contractual fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements by the adviser in effect through May 28, 2021. See current prospectus for more information. As the result of a reorganization on May 24, 2019, the returns of the fund for periods on or prior to May 24, 2019 reflect performance of the Oppenheimer predecessor fund. Share class returns will differ from the predecessor fund due to a change in expenses and sales charges. Class I shares were reorganized into Class R6 shares. R6 shares are primarily intended for retirement plans that meet certain standards and for institutional investors. Y shares are generally intended for certain investors, such as wrap-fee based programs or commissionable brokerage platforms that charge sales commission.

<sup>1</sup> Morningstar ratings are based on a risk-adjusted return measure that accounts for variation in a fund's monthly performance, placing more emphasis on the downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. Open-end mutual funds and exchange-traded funds are considered a single population for comparison purposes. Ratings are calculated for funds with at least a three-year history. The overall rating is derived from a weighted average of three-, five- and 10-year rating metrics, as applicable, excluding sales charges and including fees and expenses. Had fees not been waived and/or expenses reimbursed currently or in the past, the Morningstar rating would have been lower. Class A shares received 4 stars for the overall, 4 stars for the three years, 3 stars for the five years and 5 stars for the 10 years. The fund was rated among 701, 701, 569 and 243 funds within the Morningstar Diversified Emerging Markets Category of the overall period, three, five and 10 years, respectively. Morningstar ratings are as of September 30, 2019, the most recent data available, and are subject to change every month. The top 10% of funds in a category receive five stars, the next 22.5% four stars, the next 35% three stars, the next 22.5% two stars and the bottom 10% one star. Ratings for other share classes may differ due to different performance characteristics. ©2019 Morningstar, Inc. All rights reserved. (Mstar). Mstar evaluates funds based on five key pillars (process, performance, people, parent and price). Mstar's analysts use this evaluation to identify funds they believe are more likely to outperform over the long term on a risk-adjusted basis. Analysts consider quantitative and qualitative factors and the weightings of each pillar may vary. The Analyst Rating reflects overall assessment and is overseen by Morningstar's Analyst Rating Committee. The analyst rating scale is five-tiered, with three positive ratings (Gold, Silver, Bronze), a Neutral rating and a Negative rating, with Gold being the highest rating and Negative being the lowest rating. The Mstar Analyst Ratings should not be used as the sole basis in evaluating a mutual fund and are based on Mstar's current expectations about future events. Mstar does not represent ratings as a guarantee. Analyst Ratings involve unknown risks and uncertainties which may cause Mstar's expectations not to occur or to differ significantly. <sup>3</sup> Source: Morningstar Inc., as of 12/31/18. About Risk: In general, stock values fluctuate, sometimes widely, in response to activities specific to the company as well as general market, economic and political conditions. The risks of investing in securities of foreign issuers, including emerging market issuers, can include fluctuations in foreign currencies, political and economic instability, and foreign taxation issues. Derivatives may be more volatile and less liquid than traditional investments and are subject to market, interest rate, credit, leverage, counterparty and management risks. An investment in a derivative could lose more than the cash amount invested. Stocks of small and mid-sized companies tend to be more vulnerable to adverse developments, may be more volatile, and may be illiquid or restricted as to resale. The fund is subject to certain other risks. Please see the current prospectus for more information regarding the risks associated with an investment in the fund.
