

Power of Attorney Authorization Form for Person Unable to Act

Use this form to appoint an Attorney-in-Fact when the account owner is unable to act and cannot complete the Invesco Power of Attorney Authorization Form.

Do not use this form if the account owner is able to act. If the account owner is able to act complete the Invesco Power of Attorney Authorization Form.

This is an important legal document. Before executing this form, please review the important information below:

- This document should be completed by the account owner's Attorney-in-Fact when the account owner is unable to act.
- This document gives the Attorney-in-Fact broad powers over the owner's Invesco account.
- The account owner, as grantor, must have previously granted Power of Attorney to the Attorney-in-Fact which remains in effect, a copy of which must be provided with this form.
- The grantor and the Attorney-in-Fact have the right to revoke or terminate this Power of Attorney at any time by providing written notice to Invesco Investment Services, Inc. (IIS).
- The Attorney-in-Fact may not change and/or designate beneficiaries on any of the grantor's accounts.
- The Attorney-in-Fact must be a U.S. Citizen.
- For an Invesco IRA (including Traditional, Roth, and SEP), Transfer on Death (TOD), Individual, or Joint account, the completion of this form will allow permanent addition of the Attorney-in-Fact to the account registration.
- For Invesco 403(b), SIMPLE IRA, SARSEP IRA and other employer sponsored plans, a new Invesco Power of Attorney Authorization Form must be submitted for each transaction request. The Attorney-in-Fact may not be added to these accounts.
- For an Attorney-in-Fact to be named on a joint account, the joint owner(s) must sign this form.
- The Attorney-in-Fact must sign this form and have their signature notarized.

4 | Governing Law (Please read.)

The laws of the state of Delaware shall apply and bind the parties in any and all questions arising under this Power of Attorney agreement, including questions of validity, interpretation and performance.

5 | Terms and Conditions (Please read.)

Authority granted to the Attorney-in-Fact: The designated Attorney-in-Fact may inquire about, purchase and exchange mutual funds within the owner(s)' Invesco account(s) in the same manner and to the same extent that the owner(s) is permitted to do so. In addition, the designated Attorney-in-Fact may withdraw assets from the owner(s)' Invesco account(s) regardless of the tax consequences of such distribution, and make changes to the dividend and capital gain distribution options. All distributions will be made payable to the account owners(s). The designated Attorney-in-Fact is not authorized to draw checks (Check Writing Option) upon the owner(s)' Invesco account(s). To the extent permitted by applicable taxing authority and law, the designated Attorney-in-Fact is also authorized to make and exercise any tax elections available to the grantor under federal, state, or local tax law related to any of the Invesco accounts set forth on this form. With respect to IRAs, including Traditional IRAs, Roth IRAs, and SEP IRAs, the designated Attorney-in-Fact may initiate rollovers, Roth IRA conversions, IRA recharacterizations, and other transfers of assets between and among the grantor's account(s).

Role of Invesco - Disclaimer: Invesco is not acting as a fiduciary pursuant to the Attorney-in-Fact to this Power of Attorney Authorization Form for Person Unable to Act. Invesco is not responsible for investigating the Attorney-in-Fact or the validity of his/her appointment. Invesco will only effect instructions it receives from an Attorney-in-Fact. The account owner(s) and Attorney-in-Fact are solely responsible for determining the suitability for the account owner(s) of any investment strategy or transaction. Invesco assumes no responsibility whatsoever for reviewing or monitoring any investment decision or activity of the Attorney-in-Fact. Invesco will not provide legal, trading or tax advice.

Termination: The account owner and/or Attorney-in-Fact agree to notify Invesco immediately, in writing, if the account owner(s) desires to revoke the authority given to the Attorney-in-Fact under this authorization form. The Attorney-in-Fact agrees to notify Invesco immediately, in writing, upon the account owner's death. This Power of Attorney shall remain in effect until Invesco receives written notice of its termination and has had sufficient time to process such notice and terminate the authority of the Attorney-in-Fact. The Power of Attorney shall automatically be deemed revoked upon receipt of a new or subsequent Power of Attorney Authorization Form or Power of Attorney Authorization Form for Person Unable to Act Form. Invesco reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to no longer honor instructions from the Attorney-in-Fact designated herein and will promptly notify the Attorney-in-Fact if it chooses to do so.

Indemnification of Invesco by Account Owner(s) including joint owners if applicable: The account owner(s) agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Invesco, its affiliates, each of their respective employees, officers, trustees, or directors, and each of the Invesco Funds from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, damages, and expenses, including attorney fees, that may be incurred by their reliance on this Power of Attorney or their execution of the Attorney-in-Fact's instructions. The account owner(s) agrees that because Invesco will not supervise or monitor the Attorney-in-Fact's trading decisions or other activities with respect to the accounts designated in this form, the account owner(s) will not attempt to hold Invesco liable for any trade, withdrawal or decision made by the Attorney-in-Fact whom the grantor has selected, regardless of whether or not such trade, withdrawal or decision was specifically authorized by the account owner(s). The account owner(s) hereby ratifies and confirms any and all transactions, trades, withdrawals or other dealings effected in and for the account owner(s) by the Attorney-in-Fact designated herein. Invesco's rights under this paragraph are in addition to any other rights it has under other agreements with the joint account owner(s) and/or Attorney-in-Fact.

Indemnification of Invesco by Attorney-in-Fact: The Attorney-in-Fact agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Invesco, its affiliates, each of their respective employees, officers, trustees, or directors, and each of the Invesco Funds from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, damages, and expenses, including attorney fees, that may arise out of or relate to any breach incurred by the Attorney-in-Fact of any provision of this agreement or other agreements with Invesco and/or the account owner(s); the performance or non-performance of the Attorney-in-Fact's services; and any trade, withdrawal, redemption or tax issue or action of the Attorney-in-Fact in the account(s); and any disputes involving the Attorney-in-Fact and the account owner(s). Invesco's rights under this paragraph are in addition to any other rights it has under other agreements with the account owner(s) and/or Attorney-in-Fact.

6 | Authorization and Signature of Attorney-in-Fact (Please sign and date below.)
