
Georgina Taylor

Head of Client Investment Solutions, EMEA

Georgina Taylor

Georgina Taylor is Head of Client Investment Solutions for EMEA (Europe, Middle East, and Africa) for the Invesco Solutions and Custom Strategies team, based in Henley. Her team provides research insights, advanced portfolio construction analytics, and implementation solutions for institutional and private client investors. Leveraging Invesco's global investment platform, Ms. Taylor and her team deliver tailored investment solutions designed to achieve clients' specific objectives. Ms. Taylor also serves as Chief Executive Officer of the Invesco Asset Management Ltd. Board in the UK.

Ms. Taylor joined Invesco in 2013. Prior to joining the firm, she was head of equity strategy for the Europe, Middle East and Africa regions at State Street Global Markets, where she was involved in enhancing the macro input to specific State Street products and presenting these to clients. Ms. Taylor began her career in 2001 as an equity strategist at HSBC, followed by a similar role at Goldman Sachs in 2004, where she was involved in global equity and asset allocation research. Ms. Taylor then gained asset management experience at Legal & General Investment Management, contributing to the overall asset allocation outlook for the firm and its multi-asset funds

Ms. Taylor earned a BSc (Hons) degree in economics from the University of Bath.