

Estimated 2021 Invesco fund distributions

Some Invesco funds will make distributions during the remainder of 2021. To help with year-end planning, the table starting on page 2, lists estimated 2021 capital gain distributions and Class A share net asset values (NAV) as of September 30, 2021.

These numbers represent estimates as of September 30, 2021 and will change based on market volatility, portfolio and shareholder activity, and tax adjustments. Income distributions are anticipated for some funds, however, estimated income figures will not be provided.

Fund distributions: What does that mean for me?

Q: What is a capital gain?

A: A capital gain is the profit that results when a mutual fund sells a security at a price higher than the purchase price. In contrast, a capital loss results when a mutual fund sells a security at a price lower than the purchase price. For tax purposes, capital gains are offset by any capital losses. If a fund's capital gains exceed its capital losses, it will distribute the net capital gains to shareholders.

Q: What is the difference between an unrealized capital gain and a realized capital gain?

A: When the value of a fund holding increases, the fund has an unrealized gain until the security is sold. Once this security is sold, the fund realizes the gain and must pay a distribution unless the gain is offset by capital losses.

Q: Why do mutual funds pay capital gains?

A: Mutual funds are required under federal tax law to distribute realized capital gains to shareholders in the taxable year the gains are realized, or under specified circumstances, within 12 months after the close of the taxable year.

Q: What is contributing to a capital gain?

A: There can be several factors that contribute to a capital gain. One factor could be general market performance has been overall higher. Another factor is a holding that has appreciated in value and was subsequently sold out of the fund. Sometimes a fund may need to sell a holding to provide liquidity in order to meet fund redemptions. Or simply maybe the portfolio managers want to replace a holding with another holding that may provide greater future returns or help to minimize risk.

Q: Why did my mutual fund not pay a capital gain?

A: The fund has realized capital losses in the current or prior year which offset all of its realized capital gains. A capital loss results when a mutual fund sells a security at a price lower than the purchase price. Mutual funds may or may not pay a capital gain distribution in any given year.

Q: Can a fund pay a capital gain if its total return was negative?

A: Yes. Even if a fund's total return was negative, a fund may have realized net capital gains (its capital gains exceeded its capital losses) as a result of selling securities. As a result, the fund will distribute the net capital gains to shareholders.

Q: How does a fund distribution affect the fund's net asset value?

A: On the date of the distribution, the distribution is taken out of the fund's per-share net asset value, so the per-share net asset value decreases by the amount of the distribution, net of any market fluctuations.

Q: How will I know my actual amount of the capital gain?

A: A fund's NAV will drop on the distribution ex-date to reflect the portfolio's NAV after distribution; this drop would be in addition to any effect the market's performance had on the securities within the fund's portfolio. Communications regarding final distributions will be at the share class level with CUSIPs and tickers throughout December. Actual distributions will appear on shareholders' 1099-DIV forms, which will be mailed in January 2022 subject to the exception regarding certain real estate and MLP funds stated on the last page.

Q: Will the capital gain impact my taxes in my retirement account?

A: The distributions should not impose a tax burden on shareholders holding shares through a retirement account. Please check with your tax advisor for additional information.

Q: Why is my fund not listed on the InFocus?

A: If a fund is not listed in an InFocus on any of these dates, it is not expected to pay a capital gain.

Information to note

- Invesco will file for an extension with the IRS that would permit Invesco to delay its delivery of the 2021 Form 1099-DIV and Form 1099-B to shareholders of the Invesco Real Estate Fund, Invesco Global Real Estate Fund, Invesco Global Real Estate Income Fund, Invesco Real Estate Fund, Invesco SteelPath MLP Alpha Fund, Invesco SteelPath MLP Alpha Plus Fund, Invesco SteelPath MLP Income Fund, and Invesco SteelPath MLP Select 40 Fund. The assets within these Invesco funds consist of either Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) or Partnerships and the Funds will not receive all critical distribution information from the underlying Trusts and Partnerships until late in January or February 2022. Therefore, a 30-day extension is required to collect this information and produce the appropriate 1099-DIV and 1099-B tax forms to the shareholders of each fund.
- Actual distributions will appear on shareholders' 1099-DIV Forms, which will be mailed in January 2022 subject to the exception stated above regarding certain real estate and MLP funds.
- A fund's NAV will drop on the distribution ex-date to reflect the portfolio's NAV after distribution; this drop would be in addition to any effect the market's performance had on the securities within the fund's portfolio.
- These distributions shouldn't impose a tax burden on shareholders holding shares through a retirement account. Please check with your tax advisor for additional information.
- In December, a free copy of the 2021 Invesco Tax Guide will be available as a PDF at invesco.com/us. The guide should help Invesco shareholders with their 2021 tax returns.
- Communications regarding final distributions will be at the share class level with CUSIPs and tickers.
- In the chart above are the estimated dividend record date, dividend ex-date, and dividend payable dates for all existing share classes of the funds listed. These dates may change at the sole discretion of Invesco and without prior notice.
