About Risk:

There are risks involved with investing in ETFs, including possible loss of money. Shares are not actively managed and are subject to risks similar to those of stocks, including those regarding short-selling and margin maintenance requirements. Ordinary brokerage commissions apply. The fund's return may not match the return of the Underlying Index. The fund is subject to certain other risks. Please see the current prospectus for more information regarding the risk associated with an investment in the fund.

Investments focused in a particular sector, such as information technology, are subject to greater risk, and are more greatly impacted by market volatility, than more diversified investments.

The fund is non-diversified and may experience greater volatility than a more diversified investment.

Stocks of medium-sized companies tend to be more vulnerable to adverse developments, may be more volatile, and may be illiquid or restricted as to resale.

The risks of investing in securities of foreign issuers can include fluctuations in foreign currencies, political and economic instability, and foreign taxation issues.

<sup>2</sup> Common stocks do not assure dividend payments and the amount of a dividend, if any, may vary over time. There can be no guarantee or assurance that companies will declare dividends in the future or that if declared, they will remain at current levels or increase over time.

The Nasdaq-100 Index includes 100 of the largest domestic and international non-financial companies listed on the Nasdaq. An investment cannot be made into an index.

The NASDAQ Next Generation 100 Index includes securities of the next generation of Nasdaq-listed non-financial companies; that is, the largest 100 Nasdaq-listed companies outside of the Nasdaq-100 Index®.

The S&P 400 Index is comprised of 400 companies selected as broadly representative of companies with midrange market capitalization (market valuation of between $200 million and $5 billion).

The Russell Midcap Growth Index is a market capitalization-weighted index comprised of 800 publicly traded US companies with market caps of between $2 billion and $10 billion.

The Invesco NASDAQ Next Gen 100 ETF is not sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by the NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc. or its affiliates (NASDAQ OMX, with its affiliates, are referred to as the "Corporations"). The Corporations have no liability in connection with the administration, marketing or trading of the Invesco NASDAQ Next Gen 100 ETF. "NASDAQ®" is a registered trademark and is used under license.

Shares are not individually redeemable and owners of the Shares may acquire those Shares from the fund and tender those Shares for redemption to the fund in Creation Unit aggregations only, typically consisting of 10,000 Shares.
