2023 Year-end Invesco fund distributions

Some Invesco funds will make distributions during the remainder of 2023. The table below lists 2023 Invesco Funds that made distributions with a payable date of December 15, 2023.

Fund distributions: What does that mean for me?

Q: Why is my fund not listed on the InFocus?

A: Periodic and Annual paying funds, and Fund of Funds have ex and pay dates occurring on Dec. 13, Dec. 15, and Dec. 20. If a fund is not listed in an InFocus on any of these dates, it is not expected to pay a distribution. Please refer to the InFocus 'Invesco InFocus CG Estimates Retail' for expected capital gains pay dates in Dec. 2023. This is located on invesco.com/us > Account Access & Forms > Tax Center > Open-end tax guide > Distribution information.

Q: What is a capital gain?

A: A capital gain is the profit that results when a mutual fund sells a security at a price higher than the purchase price. In contrast, a capital loss results when a mutual fund sells a security at a price lower than the purchase price. For tax purposes, capital gains are offset by any capital losses. If a fund's capital gains exceed its capital losses, it will distribute the net capital gains to shareholders.

Q: What is the difference between an unrealized capital gain and a realized capital gain?

A: When the value of a fund holding increases, the fund has an unrealized gain until the security is sold. Once this security is sold, the fund realizes the gain and must pay a distribution unless the gain is offset by capital losses.

Q: Why do mutual funds pay capital gains?

A: Mutual funds are required under federal tax law to distribute realized capital gains to shareholders in the taxable year the gains are realized, or under specified circumstances, within 12 months after the close of the taxable year.

Q: What is contributing to a capital gain?

A: There can be several factors that contribute to a capital gain. One factor could be general market performance has been overall higher. Another factor is a holding that has appreciated in value and was subsequently sold out of the fund. Sometimes a fund may need to sell a holding to provide liquidity in order to meet fund redemptions. Or simply maybe the portfolio managers want to replace a holding with another holding that may provide greater future returns or help to minimize risk.

Q: Why did my mutual fund not pay a capital gain?

A: The fund has realized capital losses in the current or prior year which offset all of its realized capital gains. A capital loss results when a mutual fund sells a security at a price lower than the purchase price. Mutual funds may or may not pay a capital gain distribution in any given year.

Q: Can a fund pay a capital gain if its total return was negative?

A: Yes. Even if a fund's total return was negative, a fund may have realized net capital gains (its capital gains exceeded its capital losses) as a result of selling securities. As a result, the fund will distribute the net capital gains to shareholders.

Q: How does a fund distribution affect the fund's net asset value?

A: On the date of the distribution, the distribution is taken out of the fund's per-share net asset value, so the per-share net asset value decreases by the amount of the distribution, net of any market fluctuations.

Q: How will I know my actual amount of the capital gain?

A: A fund's NAV will drop on the distribution ex-date to reflect the portfolio's NAV after distribution; this drop would be in addition to any effect the market's performance had on the securities within the fund's portfolio. Communications regarding final distributions will be at the share class level with CUSIPs and tickers throughout December. Actual distributions will appear on shareholders' 1099-DIV forms, which will be mailed in January 2024 subject to the exception regarding certain real estate and MLP funds stated on the last page.

Q: Will the capital gain impact my taxes in my retirement account?

A: The distributions should not impose a tax burden on shareholders holding shares through a retirement account. Please check with your tax advisor for additional information.

Information to note:

- Invesco will file for an extension with the IRS that would permit Invesco to delay its delivery of the 2023 Form 1099-DIV and Form 1099-B to shareholders of the Invesco Real Estate Fund, Invesco Global Real Estate Fund, Invesco Global Real Estate Income Fund, Invesco Real Estate Fund, Invesco SteelPath MLP Alpha Fund, Invesco SteelPath MLP Alpha Fund, Invesco SteelPath MLP Income Fund, and Invesco SteelPath MLP Select 40 Fund. The assets within these Invesco funds consist of either Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) or Partnerships and the Funds will not receive all critical distribution information from the underlying Trusts and Partnerships until late January or February 2024. Therefore, a 30-day extension is required to collect this information and produce the appropriate 1099-DIV and 1099-B tax forms to the shareholders of each fund.
- In December, a free copy of the 2023 Invesco Tax Guide will be available as a PDF at invesco.com/us. The guide should help Invesco shareholders with their 2023 tax returns.

This information is not intended as tax advice. Investors should consult a tax advisor.

You can also access distribution information at Invesco's website, invesco.com/us, by clicking Account access > Account Access & Forms > Tax Center > Open-end tax guide > Distribution information.

About risk

There is no assurance that any investment or strategy will achieve its investment objective. Funds are subject to market risk, which is the possibility that the market values of securities owned by these funds will decline and that the value of fund shares may therefore be less than what you paid for them. Fixed-income products are subject to risk, including, but not limited to, the effects of changing interest rates. Accordingly, you can lose money investing in these funds. Please be aware that these funds may be subject to certain additional risks.

For complete details about the risks associated with these Funds, see the Funds' prospectuses.

Before investing, investors should carefully read the prospectus/summary prospectus and carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. For this and more complete information about the fund(s), investors should ask their financial professional(s) for a prospectus/summary prospectus or visit invesco.com/fundprospectus.

This does not constitute a recommendation of any investment strategy or product for a particular investor. Investors should consult a financial professional before making any investment decisions.

The Invesco variable insurance funds are used solely as investment vehicles by insurance company separate accounts to fund variable annuity contracts and variable life insurance policies. Shares of the funds cannot be purchased directly. Expenses and fees are determined by the offering insurance company and will vary. Invesco Distributors, Inc. does not offer any variable products.

Note: Not all products, materials or services available at all firms. Financial professionals, please contact your home office. All data provided by Invesco unless otherwise noted.
