11 | Notice of ERISA 408(b)(2) Disclosure to Responsible Plan Fiduciary

Effective July 1, 2012, U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) rules under Section 408(b)(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) require "covered" plan service providers to disclose certain information to "responsible plan fiduciaries" of "covered" plans, including all "direct" and "indirect" compensation the service provider receives in connection with its provision of services to the plan. These are commonly referred to as the "408(b)(2) Rules" and "408(b)(2) disclosure." Under ERISA, if you are the responsible ERISA fiduciary to your plan, you are required to ensure that the fees and expenses the plan incurs are reasonable and appropriate, including the fees and compensation that your plan pays to its various service providers. To help meet your obligations as the responsible plan fiduciary, you should obtain, review and retain all of the 408(b)(2) disclosures applicable to your plan. To fulfill its obligation under the 408(b)(2) Rules, Invesco has made their 408(b)(2) disclosure report for your plan available at www.invesco.com/us/dolregs.

If your plan is not subject to ERISA, the 408(b)(2) Rules do not apply to you or your plan. However, we encourage you to retrieve the Invesco 408(b)(2) disclosure report and review it in your capacity as the plan sponsor.

I consent to receiving and reviewing future notifications and disclosure changes pursuant to the 408(b)(2) Rules via electronic means, and I acknowledge that I have the computer hardware necessary to receive and review all such materials provided by Invesco pursuant to the 408(b)(2) Rules. I understand that I have the ability to opt out of receiving any or all such materials via electronic means and request paper versions by contacting Invesco at 800 959 4246.
- As plan administrator, I acknowledge and understand that while Invesco is making available to me certain information to assist with my compliance obligation under Department of Labor regulation section 255.404-5 ("404a-5 Rules"), compliance with the 404a-5 Rules and disclosure requirements thereunder is solely by obligation.
